

Do you meet the updated standards of proficiency?

The HCPC standards of proficiency have been updated. If you are a HCPC-registered professional, you'll need to meet the standards as far as they relate to your scope of practice.

The updates are effective from 1 September 2023

There are updates to the standards for all HCPC-regulated professions, and updates that apply to specific professions. The main areas with changes are:

Further centralising the service user

Registrants' mental health

Equality, diversity and inclusion

Leadership

Digital skills and new technologies

Promoting public health and preventing ill-health
